Energy Procurement Summit for Manufacturing Plants

What you get, and your total investment.

Columbus, April 29–30, 2027
Detroit, October 28–29, 2027

15 guaranteed 1-on-1 meetings

Plant leaders ask to meet you. Your booked schedule arrives before the summit.

A 20-minute case-study talk

To a full room. There is one track, so every delegate sees it.

A fully furnished exhibit

In the meeting room, next to the tables. No expo hall.

Your own dining table

Assigned seating at meals, with the plant leaders who asked for you.

Three people, full access

All sessions, meals and the cocktail reception. The delegate list 30 days before.

Your total investment

$39,000

The full package at one summit. About $2,600 per guaranteed meeting, with the talk, exhibit and table included. $62,500 if bought separately.

Book both 2027 summits

$29,000 each

The full package in Columbus in April and in Detroit in October, 15 guaranteed meetings at each. $58,000 for the two, $20,000 less than booking them one at a time. About $1,900 per guaranteed meeting.

Add meetings up to 40 at $1,500 each. Extra passes are $2,900 each. Or pick only what you want: meetings from $15,000, talk $15,000, exhibit $15,000, dining table $10,000. One category, one summit. Prices in USD.

A missed meeting isn't lost.

Any booked meeting that doesn't happen is added to your next summit: miss 3, and you get 15 plus 3. It's written into your sponsor agreement.

Capped at 20 sponsors.

Each summit is capped at 20 sponsors, each solving a different problem for the people in the room.

No vendor walks the show.

Solution providers attend only as sponsors, so the plant leaders you meet are not being chased by your competitors in the hallway.
